

Story

How well did I include the elements of story into my writing?

Rubric

Character	My writing has a few characters, but I don't know anything about them	My writing has a few characters and I have included some background information	My writing has many characters and I have included details about their past, personality, emotions, and experiences
Intent	My characters don't really have a goal or a motive for their actions	I explained the characters goals and motives in some detail	I gave detailed reasons and background information for the main characters goals and motives
Actions	The actions in my writing don't really relate to my characters goals and motives	The actions in my writing form a general plot that is related to the characters goals and motives	The actions in my writing allow the reader to view y characters personality and their decisions relating to their goals and motives
Struggles	The struggles in my writing don't really relate to my characters goals and motives	The struggles in my writing show the obstacles that the characters have to face	The struggles in my writing show how the character deals with adversity and shows how they make decisions to achieve their goals
Details	The details in my writing don't really relate to the characters and the setting	The details in my writing show the characters, the setting and the events	The details in my writing show the characters, the setting, and the events and create a rich world with plenty of mental imagery